

2019: the year in numbers – thanks to you

People know what to do in a crisis

8,600

people helped with first aid at 860 events

121,800 young people reached with crisis education

38,600 adults reached with crisis education

Enhanced independence and wellbeing for those facing health crises

36,600 patient journeys

66,600 people helped through our community equipment service

74,700 mobility aid loans

84,600 people supported to live independently at home

Photo: © Arnauld Eme/BFC

Kindness through crisis around the world

29 international emergencies responded to (including 19 new)

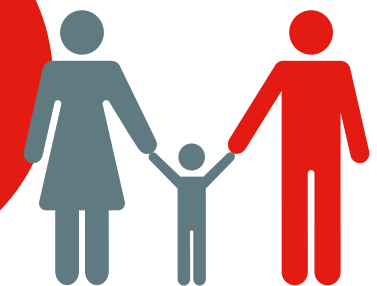

94 delegates deployed to support the movement

Reduced destitution and distress for people who are displaced

1,200 families reunited

40,500 people supported through our refugee services

14,300 people supported through destitution

8,800 people helped to trace missing relatives

Reduced distress and enhanced recovery after an emergency

1,400 UK emergencies responded to

7,200 people helped in a UK emergency

Photo: © Matt Crossick/BRCC